RAILROAD SCHEME ON A VAST SCALE GOES TO NAUGHT

English Syndicate Planned to Fight Great Systems.

LOSS ABOUT $50,000,000

Sketch of Promoter Reads Like
Monte Cristo Tale.

Kuhn, Loeb & Co., Backed by German Houses, Take Over Holdings, and Will Bring About Peace in Trunk Lines—Percival Farquhar, a Speculator, Soldier of Fortune, and Promoter on a Large Scale.

New York, July 28.—The audacity of the transaction whereby Dr. F. S. Pearson, Percival Farquhar, and their associates hoped to gain control of an American transcontinental railroad system stood out in even bolder relief when more of the facts became known to-day. Their operations were on an even greater scale than at first reported.

Altogether, long before the resources of the syndicate were impaired, they had bought stocks of the roads in the proposed system to an amount certainly in excess of 950,000 shares, and representing cash payments of quite $50,000,000.

HAD POWERFUL RIVALS.
The figures suggest the magnitude of the undertaking. In the course of the development of the scheme they must have encountered every big group of financiers and most of the powerful railroad systems in the United States. In securing control of Rock Island they must have had a bitter contest with Judge Moore and D. G. Reid, men who in at least one bitter fight got the best of Harriman.

In developing the Lehigh Valley according to their plans they must have incurred the bitter hostility of the Reading, Jersey Central, Lackawanna, Erie, and other roads backed by the Morgan and First National Bank interests.

In giving Washburn an outlet to the coast they could have had a joyous battle with the New York Central system on one side and the Pennsylvania on the other, to say nothing of the other trunk lines, like Baltimore and Ohio.

Disinherited James J. Hill.

In the West they threw down the gauntlet first to the Goulds, from whom they proposed to take their choicest possessions. They disinherited the power of James J. Hill, who does not want any transcontinental system while he controls the Great Northern, Northern Pacific, and Burlington. Finally, they reckoned not of the wishes of the richest of all systems, Union Pacific, with which they proposed to commence a sharp struggle; nor did they seem to take in the reckoning the bankers for the Union Pacific and Pennsylvania, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., into whose hands the syndicate finally fell.

As the transaction now stands, though Dr. Pearson and Mr. Farquhar retain a diminished interest in the securities the syndicate bought, Kuhn, Loeb & Co. have absolute control of them, and Otto H. Kahn, the banker who was Harriman's most trusted and respected adviser and closest confidant, is sitting on the lid of the strong box wondering what he will do with them.

No Plans for Future.

It may be stated authoritatively that up to the present Kuhn, Loeb & Co. consider the matter as a banking transaction, and have no plan for using the varied assortment of securities for railroad aggrandizement. The syndicate, headed by them, has as its principal English participant, Sir Ernest Cassel, often

KEEPS HIS THREAT.

Rejected Suitor Kills Husband of Girl After Five Years.

Mount Vernon, Ind., July 28.—Five years ago, when Harry Long was married in Henderson County, Ky., he sent Lee Stallings an invitation to his wedding, the two having been rivals for the hand of the bride. Stallings replied: "I will kill you like a dog the first time I see you."

Long and his wife came here to live, and, unknown to them, Stallings secured work near here some weeks ago.

Late last night Long and his wife were sitting in the swing in front of their home and Mrs. Long was holding the baby in her lap. Stallings passed by, and, seeing them, without saying a word, opened fire. He shot three times. One shot struck Long in the leg and the other two passed through his abdomen.

George Bishop, a neighbor, sitting a few feet away, knocked Stallings down with a brick after the third shot, and after wrenching his revolver away, held him until an officer came and arrested him. Long died.

COTTON MILL TRUST TO CONTROL TRADE

S. Davies Warfield, of Baltimore, Heads Board.

HAS CAPITAL OF $20,000,000

New Organization Plans to Take Over Large Number of Mills Throughout the Country—Myron C. Taylor, President, Is Largely Responsible for the Combine.

New York, July 28.—The organization of the International Cotton Mills Corporation, a combination of cotton interests with control over many of the textile mills of the country, was announced by Myron C. Taylor, its president. It was incorporated at Albany with an authorized capital of $20,000,000, and the company will acquire either by direct ownership or by stock control a large number of mills and companies which handle sales and distribution in Canada as well as this country.

The products of the combined mills will represent about 300 varieties of cotton fabrics. The negotiations which have led to the formation of this corporation have been going on for several months. The largest acquisition will be the preferred and common stock of the Consolidated Cotton Duck Company, which owns the Stark Mills in Manchester, N. H., besides a number of plants in the South. This concern was incorporated in 1905 in Delaware to acquire the securities of the United States Cotton Duck Corporation and the Mount Vernon-Woodberry Cotton Duck Company. The following year the former concern went out of existence, and up to the present time the Consolidated has secured something more than 93 per cent of the Mount Vernon Company's stock.

Acquired Turner Company.

The Consolidated also acquired in 1906 the entire capital stock of the J. Spencer Turner Company, which now acts as its distributor. To do this the principal and interest on $2,000,000 4 per cent debentures were guaranteed. An appraisal of the consolidated properties was made by the engineering firm of C. R. Makepeace & Co., of Providence, and the international concern decided that they should be acquired. Another concern that will be taken in is the Bay State Cotton Corporation, of Massachusetts, of which Mr. Taylor was the organizer. The Boston Yarn Company will also be acquired.

S. Davies Warfield, president of the consolidated concern, has been elected chairman of the board of the new combination. Myron C. Taylor is its president, and the vice presidents are Charles M. Warner, Thomas M. Turner, and P. T. Jackson, Jr. J. D. Armitage is the general manager, A. P. Loring treasurer, and D. H. Carroll secretary.

Taylor a Young Man.

Mr. Taylor, who has been largely responsible for the new concern, is a man of about thirty-five, has first made a place for himself in cotton interests by starting a factory for the manufacture of mail pouches for the government. He still has a factory at Tyon, N. Y., where these are made.

The directors are Augustus P. Loring, R. P. Snelling, Edward Lovering, Frank J. Hols, J. D. Armitage, P. T. Jackson, Jr., and A. L. Scott, all of Boston; F. A. Carpenter, Manchester, N. H.; Charles M. Warner, E. A. Brinckerhoff, Thomas M. Turner, Myron C. Taylor, of New York; S. Davies Warfield, David H. Carroll, J. H. Wheelwright, and William H. Grafflin, of Baltimore.

There are to be offices of the company in New York, Boston, Baltimore, Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco, London, and Manchester, England, and agencies in other foreign countries. In the employ of the international will be more than 1700 persons and twenty-two mills are included in the properties. Outside of the mill properties, the concern will own something like 10,000 acres of land, part of which is now under cultivation for cotton. It is proposed to broaden the operations in this direction.

Decide Against Ames.

Manila, July 28.—The court-martial in the case of Lieut. Col. Robert F. Ames, of the Twelfth Infantry, charged with conduct unbecoming an officer and prejudicial to military discipline, the charges growing out of the suicide of Lieut. Clarence M. Janney at a dinner given at Lieut. Col. Ames' house, has returned a verdict reducing the defendant twelve feet. He is, however, left in command of the regiment during Col. Bowen's three months of enforced absence.

Operate on Evangelist.

Berlin, July 28.—Charles M. Alexander, the evangelist, was operated upon to-day for appendicitis. So far as can be stated, the operation was successful.

BUSY TOOLS RING AT NATION'S SEAT

Million-dollar Repairs Start
In Earnest.

NEW COAT FOR DOME

Statuary Hall and Office Building in Wake.

Army of Workers at Capitol and Senate and House Edifices Are Putting Down the Rust and Kinks and Brushing Up and Expanding for the Next Session of Congress, Which Will See Many Improvements.

Improvements of more than $1,000,000 are being made at the Capitol, the Senate and House office buildings, and in course of time will extend to the City Hall, with its new addition in the Court of Appeals Building.

Since July 1 a small army of laborers, under the supervision of Supt. Elliott Woods and David Lynn, his assistant, have been going over the Capitol from the tip of dome to basement.

Fourteen new suites of offices, costing $34,000, are being fitted out in the basement of the Senate office building.

Brushing Up Dome.

Scores of laborers are at work on the big dome, going over every inch of the exterior and interior with paint and scrubbing brush, and not even the Goddess of Liberty, nearly 300 feet above the ground, has been forgotten.

In addition to the tedious and irksome task of painting the dome, the Supreme Court section, Statuary Hall, and the corridor between the rotunda and the Statuary Hall are marked out for the line of work. Every square foot of the walls, ceilings, and floors of these sections are being restored to the original, which means the scraping of fifty layers of paint off the stone work.

Work at Senate Building.

At the Senate office building the entire basement is being torn up for repairs and additions. When the building was originally built it was thought that there was sufficient room, but quarters have been cramped until it was seen fit to expand. Each office now acts as its own workshop, and the latest furnishings, plumbing, and doors.

In the House office building $30,000 has been especially appropriated for refitting and painting the building, and when completed the whole structure will take on an appearance of newness.

The work on the Capitol dome is the most difficult undertaken. Exposed as it is to the weather the year round, cracks and leaks appear constantly, and the work of painting every square inch of the huge surface, inside and out, is one of pains and peril. Thirty-five painters and ten laborers have been at work on the dome since July 1, and already nearly 2,000 gallons of paint have been used.

Many Articles Found.

This year was like the others. Hats, coats, collars, documents, and many other articles were found.

PHOTOS IN TRUNK.

Police Work on New Clues in Dr. Keeler Case.

Detroit, July 28.—The photographs of thirty women found in the trunk of Dr. Harry Keeler when he was arrested here are being studied and copies are being made and sent broadcast. Dr. Keeler is now in custody in Brooklyn.

The authorities think they may be pictures of other victims of the dentist. From all over the country the police are receiving letters from women asking about the doctor and telling of how they were wooed, wedded, and robbed by a man answering Keeler's description. A Los Angeles attorney writes that his clients Keeler married a client of his and then duped her out of $2,500.

LURTON TALKS TO LAWYERS.

Guest of Maryland and Virginia Association at Hot Springs.

Hot Springs, Va., July 28.—Justice Horace G. Lurton, of the United States Supreme Court, was the guest of honor at the final session of the Maryland and Virginia State Bar Association this morning and delivered the principal address.

Justice Lurton was escorted to the hall by William Shepherd Bryan, of Baltimore, and Eppa Hunton, of Richmond. The entire assemblage arose to its feet to pay tribute to the representative of the highest court in the land.

On the platform Justice Lurton shook hands with Col. David T. McIntosh, president of the Maryland State Bar Association, and President R. Walton Moore, of the Virginia association. The Virginia association, acting as host to the Maryland association, President Moore introduced Justice Lurton to the convention. Justice Lurton's address was an answer to the question, "Shall it be a government of law or of men?"

TWO STRIKERS DIE IN NEW YORK RIOT

Two Thousand Engage in Battle at Sugar Plant.

New York, July 28.—Two thousand men—police, strikers, and strike-breakers—engaged in a deadly hand-to-hand fight in front of the American Sugar Refining Company's plant, at South Third street and Kent avenue, Williamsburg, about 8:30 o'clock this morning, and as a result two men are dead and a score or more are badly injured, some of whom may die.

The riot resulted from the attempt of the company to send out a consignment of sugar in defiance of the threats of the 3,000 striking employees. Fifteen hundred strikers gathered around the plant this morning to see that the consignment did not move according to schedule, and when the police attempted to interfere on the company's behalf the battle took form.

Pistols, clubs and bricks were freely used, and the affray spread over an area of four blocks and raged for ten or fifteen minutes. The sidewalks in places became literally covered with the unconscious forms of injured men. More than a dozen policemen were badly hurt by bricks hurled from the roofs and fire escapes of adjoining buildings by strike sympathizers.

The police did not get the situation thoroughly in hand for more than an hour after the cessation of hostilities, and then they stood ready to cope with an outbreak which momentarily threatened.

Supt. Pool called Police Commissioner Baker on the phone late in the afternoon and told him that the first thing to-morrow morning the refinery people purposed to move thirty truckloads of sugar to the Eastern district refinery further up the Long Island shore of the East River. There were 60,000 barrels of sugar in the beleaguered refinery that had to be moved, said the superintendent, and this would be the first consignment.

Commissioner Baker ordered that 500 policemen in two shifts should cover the moving operations to-morrow, and trouble is feared.

TWO THOUSAND SOLDIERS

TO GUARD COLUMBUS CARS

Columbus, July 28.—Two thousand soldiers, under command of Gen. W. V. McMaken, of Toledo, are encamped here to-night, pursuant to a call issued by Mayor Marshall, who, after four days of intermittent rioting incident to the street strike, declared his police force exhausted and no longer able to cope with the situation.

No cars were run in the city to-day, save those of interurban lines, and none will be until to-morrow, when Gov. Harmon is scheduled to arrive from his summer home at Charlevoix, Mich. So far martial law has not been declared, and Mayor Marshall still is in charge of things. Since cars were withdrawn last night at 10 o'clock there has been no disturbance, and none is expected so long as cars are not operating.

Troop A, of Cleveland, most of whose members are either rich men or rich men's sons, has roped off a section of Broad street to quarter its horses. The troops themselves occupy cottages in Trinity House, opposite Trinity Episcopal Church.

All the companies of the Second, Third, and Sixth regiments of infantry are here. Battalions have gone into camp about the street car barns, where rioting was lively. The State arsenal is under guard of Battery C, of Columbus.

W. D. Mahon, international president of the Street Car Men's Union, is directing the strike for the men. The men went on strike in April because the Columbus Railway and Light Company was discharging every man suspected of belonging to the union. An increase in pay was also asked.

Business men brought about a peaceful settlement after six days, but since then the union alleges the company has continued to discriminate against members. Since the present strike was ordered, Sunday, the men have demanded a further increase in pay at a minimum of 25 cents an hour and recognition of the union.

BODIES IN A BOX.

Dead Woman and Child Found in Texas Freight Office.

Italy, Tex., July 28.—A large square box which was unloaded here by mistake more than a year ago, and had been stored ever since in the freight house was opened by the station agent last evening and found to contain the mummified bodies of a woman and child. It is thought that they may be the victims in a murder mystery.

The box was unloaded from an express car at Italy because the address upon it had been obliterated. An effort was made at the time to discover the shipper but was unsuccessful. The box was shipped from some point in Utah and it was thought that it was consigned to some person in Mississippi.

The bodies are not clothed and there was nothing in the box whereby the identity may be established.

MARRIAGE PORTION LEADS TO COURT

Aged Husband Says Former Countess Is In a Plot.

Cincinnati, July 28.—When the case involving the transfer of $40,000 worth of Procter & Gamble stock, claimed as the aged Percy Procter, at last came to a trial to-day, Lawrence Maxwell, Procter's attorney, sought to file an amended petition alleging that the Baroness Natalie von Kliffus, now Mrs. Procter, and her London agent, Joseph De Wyckoff, were conspirators in a plot to get as much money out of Procter as possible in the shape of a marriage portion; that the baroness never intended to consummate the marriage, and never did so. Most of the afternoon was taken up with the reading of depositions made by witnesses abroad.

Percy Procter was the only witness at the afternoon session. He identified the marriage contract in the possession of the baroness as genuine. The ante-nuptial contract was signed while she was still the wife of Baron de Kliffus, and Procter agreed to pay her 200,000 francs if she would marry him as soon as she secured a divorce.

After the baroness died, he said, the ceremony was performed, but the marriage was never consummated. He said that he only gave her the 100 shares of Procter & Gamble stock as security for his note, and that there was a distinct understanding that it was never to be sold. He denied that he had given De Wyckoff, the English attorney, permission to sell the stock. Procter was subjected to a severe cross-examination by Attorney Cornany.

He admitted that he had often kissed his wife, but said that they had never lived as man and wife. Most of the cross-examination was along this line. After court adjourned Procter attempted to follow his attorney, Lawrence Maxwell, into the courthouse elevator, but the elevator man, seeing that the former baroness was calling him, slammed the door and started the car. The baroness and her husband walked downstairs together, she clinging to his arm. He escorted her to her attorney's office, a block away. To her entreaties to return to her, he replied: "No, you did wrong when you tried to sell that stock."

The case will be continued to-morrow morning.

ROOSEVELT'S NEPHEW LOSES.

Utica, July 28.—Theodore Douglas Robinson, nephew of former President Roosevelt, two weeks ago announced his candidacy for the Republican Congressional nomination in the Oneida-Herkimer district, against Representative Charles S. Millington, had his hopes rudely dashed in the Herkimer County primaries, held to-day and to-night in the various towns.

From the returns at hand up to 10 o'clock Robinson was soundly beaten by the regular Republican organization led by State Committeeman Strober, and all indications are he will go into Saturday's convention, at which delegates to the Congressional convention will be chosen, with only about 20 of the 66 delegates pledged to his support.

$1.25 to Baltimore and Return

Saturdays and Sundays via Pennsylvania Railroad. Tickets good returning until Sunday night. All regular trains, except the "Congressional Limited."

SPAIN AND VATICAN ABOUT TO BREAK

Rupture Between Holy See and Madrid Reported.

London, July 28.—A dispatch from Madrid to the Central News says the negotiations between Spain and the Vatican in reference to a modification of the concordat are in such shape that a rupture between the holy see and King Alfonso's government may be regarded as certain.

El Liberal states that the Vatican has addressed a curt note to Spain, breaking off all negotiations. The Vatican note practically amounts to an ultimatum. El Liberal understands that the Spanish ambassador to the Vatican will be immediately recalled, and that the papal nuncio at Madrid will be handed his passports. Prime Minister Canalejas virtually admitted the accuracy of the statement that the Vatican has broken off negotiations. He said the Vatican note intimated that negotiations could not be continued until the government suspended its recent edicts.

Senor Canalejas added that he would do his utmost to maintain the negotiations within the limits of prudence, but anyway he was resolved to fulfill his promises to the nation.

NEW PARTY FORMED.

Pennsylvania Independents Name
Full State Ticket.

Philadelphia, July 28.—A convention without a boss, the State convention of the new third party sat in this city to-day and produced as its campaign offering a ticket headed with the name of ex-State Treasurer William H. Berry, of Delaware County, for the governorship.

Keystone Party is the title adopted by the independents. Berry's associates on the ticket are: Lieutenant governor, D. Clarence Gibson, president of the Philadelphia Law and Order Society; State treasurer, Cornelius D. Scully, of Pittsburgh; secretary of internal affairs, John J. Casey, former legislator, representative of labor, and author of the State employers' liability law of Wilkesbarre.

Berry and Casey are Democrats, and Gibson and Scully are Republicans.

LIND IS NAMED.

Despite His Refusal, Minnesota
Democrats Take Action.

St. Paul, July 28.—Minnesota Democrats to-day nominated John Lind for governor in spite of his persistent declarations that under no circumstances would he accept the nomination. Lind is in Everett, Wash., on his way to Alaska. Months before the convention he demanded that the party should adopt a county option plank in its platform. It was insisted by the leaders that that plank were adopted Lind would accept the nomination in spite of his protests to the contrary. The anti-optionists, however, secured control of the convention and adopted a platform in which no reference was made to county option or to any form of temperance legislation. Then the convention named Lind.

No other name was mentioned as a candidate. Lind's son, who is a prominent business man of Everett, wired to-day that his father would not and will not accept the nomination under any circumstances. The result is that the Democrats are very much up in the air.

The nominations were: Governor, John Lind, of Minneapolis; lieutenant governor, George M. C. Tift, of Prairie; secretary of state, Fred Johnson, of New Ulm (a brother of former Gov. John A. Johnson); State treasurer, C. F. Ladner, of St. Cloud; auditor, T. J. Meighen, of Preston; justice of the supreme court, T. D. O'Brien, of St. Paul, and A. A. Snow, of Winona.

Drowned in the Yachkin River.

CRIPPEN AND GIRL ON SHIP AWAITED AT CANADA PORT

Scotland Yard Detective to Make Arrest.

BEATS VESSEL OVER SEA

Montrose With Quarry Will Land To-morrow.

Pursuit of Suspected Slayer of Belle Elmore, Who Is Now Nearing Capture After a Chase All Over the World, and Is Under an Assumed Name, Will End in Montreal, if Wireless Messages Carry Truth.

Montreal, July 28.—A wireless message received here this morning from the steamship Montrose via the station at Point Amour, on the Straits of Belle Isle, 500 miles below Father Point, announced the presence on board of Dr. H. H. Crippen. The message read:

"Dr. Crippen, wanted in London for the murder of Belle Elmore, the actress, is on board."

No mention was made in the dispatch of Miss Le Neve, who is supposed to have left England with Dr. Crippen, but she is with him, it is understood.

SCOTLAND YARD MAN WAITS.

Detective Dew, of the Scotland Yard detective force, who crossed in the steamship Laurentic on the trail of Dr. Crippen, is now in Canadian waters, his vessel having passed the Montrose at sea yesterday. It is believed he will be able to book a return passage at once with his prisoner.

There is no doubt as to the identity of the two passengers traveling second class on the Montrose from Antwerp to Quebec and registered under the names of the Rev. Mr. Robinson and his son. Delaney, the wireless operator at Point Amour, has been in communication with the Montrose both directly and through the Allan Line steamer Granplan since 5:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Messages Confirm.

His official message to Col. Percy Sherwood, of the Dominion police at Ottawa, and the head office of the Canadian Pacific show that there is no doubt in the mind of Capt. Kendall and others on the Montrose that the Robinsons are the much-sought-after Dr. H. Crippen and Miss Le Neve.

Inspector Dew, of Scotland Yard, who is on the Laurentic with a warrant for Crippen, will not be able to make the actual arrest without having his warrant endorsed by a judge of the Court of King's Bench.

This cannot be done at Father Point, or Rimouski, the nearest judicial districts being the city of Quebec, some 200 miles away, or Frazerville, 100 miles to the eastward. It was arranged to-day, with a view to avoiding any legal extradition tangle later, to have Chief McCarthy, of the Quebec provincial force, and Chief Denis, of Lewis, with Chief Constable Gaudreau, of the Dominion police, take the doctor and his companion under their wing on suspicion of being undesirable citizens.

Arrest at Grosse Isle.

This little act in the drama will take place at Grosse Isle, where immigrants are examined on inbound vessels.

When Inspector Dew arrives on the Laurentic at Father Point he will be advised to go ashore and rush up to Quebec by train, where he can have the warrant O. K'd and proceed down the river again to Grosse Isle. In the immigrant sheds there a place somewhat similar to old Castle Garden, in New York, on a much smaller scale, Crippen and the Le Neve woman will have the warrant read to them and they will be placed formally under arrest. As soon as Quebec is reached the pair will be arraigned before Judge Chauveau. Arrangements have been made to send them back to the old country on the Royal George, which sails on August 4.

Every farm house in the Rimouski district had a search of the house. The quota of newspaper men brought down the river on the Intercolonial Ocean Limited to-night brings the total up to forty-four. From Rimouski to civilization there are two telegraph wires, operated by French Canadians, with a capacity of transmitting about 200 words an hour in English.

Activity of News Reporters.

Every reporter naturally hopes to get away a story ahead of the other fellow, and there is some great jockeying for the pole. Yachts and tugs, what few there are, are at a premium. The little government pilot boat is berthed to capacity with detectives and officials of the
